

CALENDAR

Christine Leggett

4

Owner Barbara Brooks opened Fetzer City Restaurant on Jan. 8. A Valentine's Day Italian dinner special will be served at 7 p.m.

traditional BBQ meats and sides such as baked potatoes, coleslaw and potato salad. Scrup, an original pudding dessert, is served in two different flavors: chocolate and lemon. The community can suggest items they would like to see added to the restaurant's daily specials on its Facebook page. 281-259-6363

Coming Soon

9 The Calendar Garden, opening March 12, will feature roses from the Antique Rose Emporium, vegetables and many Texas native plants. Gardening tools and supplies will also be available. Located at 30730 Old Hockley Road, Magnolia, the garden will also designate part of its land to a choose-and-cut Christmas tree farm. Owner Tiffany Breed said the trees will be big enough to cut in three to four years. Discounts and door prize drawings will be awarded at the grand opening in late March. 281-793-8043

Relocated

10 Jon Fletcher relocated his business, Excel CrossFit and MMA, from 33023 Tamina Road, Magnolia, to 32403 FM 2978, Ste. 118, Magnolia. It offers a wide variety of programs such as cross-fit, boxing, Muay Thai, US Army ground training, personal training and nutrition counseling. 936-697-2998, www.excelcrossfitandmma.com

11 During the last week of January, Northwoods Urology Associates and Northwoods Cancer Center finished building its new location in Tomball at 24721 Hwy. 249. The cancer center will have a CAT scan machine and the latest state-of-the-art equipment. The center moved from its previous location at 919 Graham Drive, Tomball. 281-290-9800, www.northwoodsurology.com

Courtesy Mary Cristen

5

Dr. Sandra How promises clients they will never have to wait more than 15 minutes at the independently owned Triumph Pharmacy.

Christine Leggett

6

Melissa Recio's restaurant, J.A.X., offers eight types of certified Angus beef burgers and six types of french fries.

Christine Leggett

8

Magnolia Smokehouse invites patrons to suggest daily specials on its Facebook page.

News or questions about Tomball/Magnolia?
E-mail tomnews@impactnews.com.

My Jazzy Valentine

Photos courtesy Multifaceted Exquisite Events Inc.

Althea Renee, Michael Lington and Dean James are three of the performers at the concert.

Feb. 12

By Betsy Ellison and Hailey Osterhaus

Multifaceted Exquisite Events Inc. presents a concert featuring three contemporary and smooth jazz musicians, with proceeds benefiting The American Heart Association. Saxophonist Michael Lington, who is currently on tour with Michael Bolton and Dean James, will join solo improvisational flautist Althea Renee to create an intimate ambiance just in time for Valentine's Day.

Melody Warren, owner of Multifaceted Exquisite Events, said she has seen these musicians in action and the performances are well worth it.

"These musicians are very unique," Warren said. "Anyone who comes to see them will be inspired."

7-11 p.m. • Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion, 2005 Lake Robbins Drive, The Woodlands • $40 (general admission) $55 (VIP) • 281-260-8469

February

5 Magnolia Lions Club Pancake Supper

Serving pancakes, bacon, milk and coffee, the annual pancake supper also serves a cause. Some of the beneficiaries of the money are Baylor College of Medicine, Lighthouse for the Blind and Leader Dog program. There will be a drawing for an HD flat screen TV with a contribution of $1 to the club. 5-8 p.m. • $7 (adults), $4 (12 and under) • Magnolia Junior High School Cafeteria, 31138 Nichols Sawmill Road, Magnolia • 832-816-8066 www.lions2s2.org/magnolia.html community members to discuss and answer questions about city projects. It will also give residents the opportunity to address issues or concerns in an informal setting. Finger foods and beverages will be provided. 5:30 p.m. • Free • Nonna's Italian Grill, 1025 Alma Street, Tomball • 281-351-5484 www.ci.tomball.tx.us

22 Sam Houston Trail Riders

Upwards of 300 trail riders will make their annual stop in Tomball to feed their horses and grab a bite to eat. At noon, there will be a presentation by the City and members of the trail riders, and scholarships will be presented to high school students during a ceremony held at the Downtown Depot. Noon • Free Downtown Depot, 501 James Street, Tomball www.hlsr.com/events/trail-rides/index.aspx

24-26 "Bus Stop" by William Inge

This theater production conjures up a story about five travelers who become trapped in a diner during a snowstorm in Kansas City. 7:30 p.m. • $10 (general admission), $8 (students, seniors and LSC employees) Lone Star College-Tomball, 30555 Tomball Parkway, Tomball • 281-357-3654 www.lonestar.edu/tomball.htm

Online Calendar

Find more or submit Tomball and Magnolia events at www.impactnews.com/tom/calendar.

For a full list of Houston Metro events visit www.impactnews.com/houston-metro/calendar.

To have Tomball and Magnolia events included in print edition, they must be submitted online by the 15th of every month.

Courtesy Spring Home and Garden Show

Thompson's Landscaping Services will be one of the participants.

9-20 Spring Home and Garden Show

More than 200 professionals gather to showcase their products and introduce their services to Houston homeowners. The Spring Home and Garden Show includes exhibitors of green products, landscaping, outdoor living products and interiors. Saturday 9 a.m.-7 p.m., Sunday 6 p.m. • $9, $7 (adults, seniors) • Waterway Marriott Hotel & Convention Center, 1601 Lake Robbins Drive, The Woodlands 713-661-0109 • www.woodlandsshows.com

10 The Mayor's Coffee

Mayor Gretchen Fagan will meet with

