Houston is hosting a few celebrities this weekend, and everyone has a rare chance to mix and mingle with them.

On Saturday night, the CEO of Exquisite Events Houston, Melody Warren, is hosting "Chocolate Summer Night", an evening jazz, poetry, and complimentary desserts . The $20 ticket will get you into the event at the Crowne Plaza Hotel on Kirby, featuring Emmy Award winning poet Hank Stewart, recording artist Dean James, and vocalist Andre

James. You can also get information and purchase tickets online at the "Chocolate Summer Night" website.

And if you get up early enough on Sunday morning, you can get a free seat to hear New York Times bestselling author Laurell K. Hamilton do a question and answer session, hosted by Murder By The Book and held at Firehouse Saloon. The tour is in honor of the release of the 19th book in her Anita Blake: Vampire Hunter series, called Bullet. Topics will be rated R, so leave the kids (and anyone with delicate sensibilities) at home. The event is free of charge, but if you want to participate in the meet and greet, you'll need to buy a copy of Bullet from Murder By The Book.
